Visitor's top tips

- || Drive to Staple Hill or Ham Hill for the best views across the county. Visit Barleymows Farm Shop for the best all day breakfast or a great Sunday Lunch. Snowdon Park in Chard is a great place to let dogs have a run off lead. We had a lovely walk around Chard reservoir nature reserve, it's excellent for bird watchers. La Campagna, Italian Restaurant, serves delicious food and is close by. Martock is a gorgeous village, Honiton has a great market and Exmouth is one of Devon's oldest and prettiest towns.

- Ilminster is such a lovely town with lots of independent shops and eateries. The West Somerset Railway journey is incredibly scenic. There's an abundance of National Trust sites to visit in the area – our favourites are Knightshayes, Barrington Court, Montacute House, Lytes Cary Manor and Tintinhull Garden. Sidmouth is a beautiful town with so much to do and see – it's a lovely day out. Whites Fish & Chip Shop in Chard is excellent! The Candlelight Inn is within walking distance from site and serves great food. ||
