Loch Muick

Walk

7 The Hill of Fare

An area of moorland that makes an enjoyable walk with extensive views.

8 Local Walks

2.5 mile walk will bring you to the Bridge of Feugh where you can sometimes spot salmon leaping up the falls; for a longer walk, explore Glen Muick where you can go round the loch and spot deer and red squirrels.

Cycle

9 Durris

Set on a hill overlooking Deeside, Durris offers terrific views, and a gentle route without too many hills. The white trail follows forest roads with views north to the Dee Valley.

10 Scolty Hill

Popular with bikers and walkers and has four waymarked walks as well as lots of small paths.

Scolty Hill

Explore

11 Drum Castle

Jacobean mansion with lavishly furnished rooms and 13th-century tower, plus woodland trails.

12 Aberdeen

Famous for its stunning granite buildings; spot the resident pod of dolphins playing in the waters from the harbour, stroll along the beach or enjoy a spot of retail therapy in the city centre.

Aberdeen

Visitor's top tips

Visit Raemoir or Drum Garden Centres for an indulgent afternoon tea.

Follow the Vat Trail at the Muir of Dinnet & scramble into the granite Vat, it's amazing!

A trek up to the summit tower of Scolty Hill gives great views of the local countryside.

Use public transport to visit Aberdeen, it's easily accessible and good value.

Take a walk to Crathes Castle or a stroll along the Deeside Way to Milton of Crathes for lovely coffee and cake.

Scott Skinner's pub and restaurant is a short walk down the road and serves delicious lunchtime or evening meals which are good value for money.

A visit to Ballater is worthwhile.

Go the Steam Railway near to the site, it's small but friendly and worth a visit.

Walk from site into nearby Banchory, it is a beautiful place.

Go to Drum Castle to see the fascinating buildings, grounds and beautiful gardens. The guided tours are very informative and interesting.
