Walk

9 Island Walks

Leaflets about the extensive network of footpaths are available from Tourist Information Centres.

10 Fortifications Trail

Book a visit to Bembridge Fort on a Tuesday then afterwards follow this fairly flat walk along the top of the downs to explore the Island's role in wartime defence and intelligence. The walk is suitable for most wheelchairs and offers spectacular views.

Explore

12 Newport

This beautiful town features two elegant squares and a quay, alongside lots of museums, shops and historic sights.

13 Ryde

Set upon an expanse of sandy beach, this large town has lots of boutique shops and cafés.

14 Shanklin

A charming and traditional seaside town with a glorious beach.

Cycle

The island is ideal for cycling. Suggested routes are available from Tourist Information Centres.

11 Red Squirrel Trail

Most of this trail is based on smooth cycleways which were created from disused railway lines and make for a lovely leisurely cycle through the heart of the Island's countryside.

Visitor's top tips

There are two great local pubs within easy walking distance. The Pointer Inn in Newchurch Village and the Fighting Cocks (dog-friendly) on the main road.

Visit the Garlic Farm for everything garlic, including beer!

Bring your golf clubs and enjoy the local courses which are very welcoming to visitors.

Walking up to the battery at the Needles is an invigorating walk and the views are amazing.

The English Heritage Osborne House and Carisbrooke Castle are must-sees!

St. Catherine's Lighthouse offers spectacular views across the channel.

Shanklin Chine which is an historic natural gorge. Wander amid the natural tranquility until dusk when the Chine transforms into a magical wonderland as hundreds of lights illuminate the narrow paths, streams and waterfalls from April until November.

We loved our visit to Ventnor Botanic Garden, and the Brading Roman Villa is brilliant for history lovers.

St. Catherine's Lighthouse offers spectacular views across the channel.

Bembridge Beach is fantastic for dog walks.

Adgestone Vineyard is a wonderful day out, and the Gin Distillery is another great visit.

St Helens is a stunning little coastal village, and Sandown has a gorgeous golden sandy beach.
